

MVR Fact Sheet

Requesting your own MVR -

This MVR will contain driving citations for the last 3 years and any drug or alcohol violation for the last 10 years.

- Complete form DLD60
- Choose type of MVR (CDL MVR is only available for drivers that hold a CDL)
- CDL drivers can choose if they want a traditional MVR or a CDL MVR.
- Pay applicable fee

Requesting an MVR for another driver –

This MVR may be only be obtained by a government agency, for a legal proceeding, insurance agent or license private investigator. This MVR will contain driving citations for the last 3 years and any drug or alcohol violation for the last 10 years.

- Complete form DLD60a
- A company official authorized to obtain MVR's shall complete the form
- Mark the permissible use category that allows requester to obtain the MVR.
- Pay applicable fee (Government Agencies do not pay)

Requesting an MVR or CDL MVR for another driver –

This MVR may be requested by:

- an employer or its agent or insurer for a commercial driver license holder
 - Complete form DLD60b
 - Complete permissible use 9a
 - Pay applicable fee (Government Agencies do not Pay)
- by an individual that has notarized consent from the driver
 - Complete form DLD60b
 - Complete permissible use 13
 - Form must be signed by the driver of record and notarized
 - Pay applicable fee

This MVR will contain driving citations for the last 3 years and any drug or alcohol violation for the last 10 years.

The CDL MVR may be requested by the driver, employer or potential employer with notarized consent from the driver. This MVR will contain the DOT medical card status, TSA date and all citations, and suspensions in the records of the division.

- Complete form DLD60b
- Complete permissible use 9b
- Form must be signed by driver of record and be notarized
- Pay applicable fee